++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Thursday, dry and rather mild, some bright or sunny spells.

This Evening and Tonight:
Clear skies and light winds for most, and feeling rather cold in the far southeast, perhaps a touch of frost in sheltered rural spots. Cloud increasing a little from the northwest during the early hours. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Thursday:
Variable cloud amounts, but most places should have bright or sunny spells. Perhaps rather cloudier later. A moderate breeze developing into the afternoon. Staying dry, and rather mild. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Rather cloudy, and mild Friday and Saturday, but mostly dry with just the odd spot of drizzle. Likely turning colder through Sunday, with sunny spells, showers and brisk winds.
